Why Join MPMA?

As a member of MPMA, you will become a partner with hundreds of other museum professionals in the Mountain-Plains region. You have the opportunity to learn, network, exchange ideas, and have access to information that will benefit you and your institution. Some of the benefits are:

Annual Conference: Learn from nationally renowned speakers, professional development workshops and sessions, find the latest products and services in the exhibit hall, and enjoy social events and tours.

Emerging Leaders Scholarship Program: Students, new and mid-career professionals are eligible to apply for scholarships to attend the annual conference.

Newsgram: Receive the bi-monthly newsletter which includes articles on national issues affecting the museum field, topics of regional interest and job openings.

E-News Service: Receive regular email updates on breaking news stories and important issues relevant to museums.

Online Job Bank: Find job announcements, internships and job seekers.

Professional Networking: Connect with a supportive group of over 700 professionals who are passionate about museums.

Standing Professional Committees (SPC) and Affinity Groups: MPMA has eleven SPCs and affinities groups who provide forums in diverse disciplines to discuss ideas, strengthen standards and problem solve. MPMA members may join any of these groups.

- Association of College and University Museums and Galleries (ACUMG)
- Committee on Museum Professional Training (COMPT)
- Curator's Committee (CurCom)
- Education Committee (EdCom)
- Emerging Leaders
- National Association of Museum Exhibitions (NAME)
- Registrar's Committee of MPMA (RCMPMA)
- Small Museum Administration Council (SMAC)
- Tribal Museum Network
- Volunteer Coordinator

Mentoring Program: The mentoring program pairs emerging museum professionals with experienced leaders.

National Representation: Have a voice from our region on a national level at the American Association of Museums' Council of Regional Associations.
